Japanese language church services (list in Japanese)

Japanese language version of the churches/fellowships information as above, from Japan Christian Link: www.jclglobal.org/japanese/japanese-churches-uk/

Japanese/Japan Conferences:

1. Annual European Japanese Christian conference - the various European Japanese fellowships take turns organising this annual long weekend event in late July / early August. This is attended by 200 to 400 plus mainly Japanese Christians, including many families with some non believers. The youth programme starts a day earlier. . This almost entirely Japanese language event rotates among the main European cities and includes one or two English speaking small groups, mainly for non Japanese spouses. info@jclglobal.org
2. Annual European Japanese weekend youth retreat - normally held in the UK, various locations in the early part of the year, for young Japanese people around Europe. Mostly Christians but also suitable for those exploring the faith. info@jclglobal.org
3. Annual Japan weekend conference - usually a weekend in summer organised by JCL basically for Christians - British, Japanese or other, who are involved in or interested in reaching out to Japanese, or praying for outreach to Japanese. Mainly English language but also some Japanese language components. info@jclglobal.org

MATERIALS

<h3>EVENTS AND CHURCH SERVICES</h3>
Eurovision forum is an annual forum for Korean church leaders in Europe in which four major issues are examined in terms of Diaspora church ministries i.e. church pastoral issues; church education for youth and adult congregation; church mission; local church partnership. The 4th Eurovision forum will be held in Frankfurt on 14th- 17th March 2011. For detailed information, contact Hun Kim(azerikim@hotmail.com)
At global level, Korean Diaspora Forum (KDF) is held annually. This forum is a grand forum for which many regional forum delegates contribute for the purpose of seeking common issues among Korean Diaspora churches world widely and then pursuing the strategic plan to delineate the issues for relevant remedy. The next forum will be held in LA Grace church from 3rd - 6th May 2011. For more information, contact Hun Kim (azerikim@hotmail.com).
Korean Diaspora Missions Network (KODIMNET) is a world wide network for Korean Missions mobilisers. The aim for this network is to do effective mobilization for youth in mission. Particularly this network is strongly connected with Mission Korea (similar to Urbana conference in North America) through which thousands of young people in Korea have committed themselves for mission during the conference. The network is also recognized by the Lausanne Diaspora Leadership Team recently and seeking partnership with a ministry of International students and Diaspora ministry for people on the move under the auspices of LDLT. The next KODIMNET will happen in San Jose, USA from 28th Feb - 4th March 2011. For more detailed information contact Chulho Han (hanchulho@gmail.com) or Hun Kim (azerikim@hotmail.com).
