

Churches and Small Agencies Forum

Helping improve practice within churches and smaller charities

Who is it for?

This forum is aimed at the administrators or treasurers of churches and organisations whose annual turnover is less than £250,000pa.

What is the focus?

The forum's focus is on any issues relating to the finance, administration and ancillary procedures required to efficiently manage and maintain the office of a small agency or church.

What issues have we covered recently?

Implications of the new Charities Act for small organisations; banking strategy; the relationship between churches and mission organisations.

When do we meet?

We aim to meet twice a year.

Who is on the planning team?

A planning team has yet to be formed. The forum is administered by David Wright (Global Connections).
