

Global Interface: THE NEXT LEVEL 2004

Downloadable articles to encourage discussions among church and agency leaders based on THE NEXT LEVEL events

Designed to help groups in churches, agencies, or both, reflect on their own practice and look at alternative ways of engaging together in mission.

Do you know what agencies and churches are thinking about each other? Have you an opinion on who should lead mission or mobilise churches for mission? Whoever you are, or whatever you think - your opinion matters.

To help start your discussion about how churches are involved in mission, download THE NEXT LEVEL series of 5 discussion starters. These documents developed out of discussions that took place during 2004 between church and agency leaders. But their comments are not the whole story you can have your say as well!

- Introduction - engaging churches in mission
- Broad Themes - Reflecting the general issues raised at these facilitated events - including the key question of how to work together to mobilise the church
- Catalysts For Change - exploring new programmes for mobilising churches into mission
- Good Team Tactics - exploring ways of maintaining good relationships between churches and agencies
- Learning the Ropes - exploring ways of making training appropriate and effective
- Waking Up To Reality - exploring ways of changing church culture regarding world mission
- Who Pulls The Strings - exploring the question of power and control in mission
- Your comments
