

Where are the highest concentrations of Polish people? Westminster is the highest, but Herefordshire and Fenland are not far behind! What is your church doing to engage with them and share the gospel? What resources do our mission agencies have available to help? How can we be more effective? Do we need more resources in Polish or English?

Pole to Pole is an initiative of Global Connections, European Christian Mission, Fellowship of Churches of Christ in the UK and the Evangelical Alliance. If you are working amongst Polish people in the UK or you may know Poles who want to reach out to others, then click here for a new website giving many more details of resources and ideas.

We met together initially in December 2008 to consult with those working amongst the Polish Diaspora in the UK to see what needs there were that could be met through greater networking together, what resources are available and whether any further resources are needed – both people and particularly Polish language materials. Following this, further gatherings are being planned and resource lists are being compiled.

Click on the links below to download papers or find out more about existing resources.

Realna Nadzieja

This evangelistic magazine in Polish includes the stories of 12 ordinary Polish people and comes complete with a Polish translation of the Gospel of John

Polish Migration Presentation - Nova Research Centre - Apr 10

A PowerPoint presentation from the Nova Research Centre, given at the Pole to Pole event in London on 29 April 2010

Pole to Pole: Exploring Polish Mission in the UK - Darrell Jackson - Dec 08

This Research Report & Directory was prepared by the Nova Research Centre following a participants' survey circulated at the Pole to Pole consultation held in Coventry in December 2008

Polish Language Literature for UK - Apr 09

A catalogue showing current prices and availability in the UK: this list was compiled following the Pole to Pole consultation in December 2008 and it is hoped that it will be frequently updated