

People in mission

Issues related to supporting mission personnel and understanding the needs of overseas workers and missionaries

-  Addictive behaviours
Exploring the place of addiction among people in mission
-  Crisis management and prevention
For checklists and guidelines for handling security-related issues generally and in high risk areas
-  Healthcare
Exploring issues around the physical and spiritual health for mission personnel
-  HIV and AIDS
Find out more about the issues from a Christian perspective as well as explore links for more statistical information
-  Intercultural marriage
Exploring how to develop positive cross-cultural marriages
-  Member Care - general papers
For information on the pastoral care and development of mission partners
-  Mission training
For information on mission related training
-  Raising personal support
Exploring the issues and opportunities around developing and increasing financial support for individual mission workers and their families
-  Recruitment and selection
Exploring a range of issues including interviewing, screening and pastoral issues
-  Re-entry and debriefing
Considering issues related to returning home from overseas or helping others as they return home
-  Specialist care
For information on psychological, member care and other health care specialists
-  Stress and burnout
Exploring the causes with practical suggestions to avoid burnout
-  Teamwork
Issues related to multicultural teams and teams working overseas in both short and long-term contexts
-  Third Culture Kids and missionary families
Exploring educational and other pressures for TCKs and their families